Camp Descriptions

Baroodycamps.com

The strength of our camps lies in the energy and enthusiasm that our counselors bring to each day. We are proud to employ teachers that work at the schools where we hold our camps. As we add more options to your summer, we are calling on these teachers to be lead counselors to help use their experience in the classroom to help design the camps that they run. The following descriptions will be used as a guideline for the instructor to prepare a custom camp experience for your child and his/her fellow campers. The curriculum for these camps will be finalized well before the camp sessions begin and no camp will be the same. So feel free to use Baroody Camps for all of your summer camp needs.
